

THE "SUDDEN" FIRE OFFICER...

A NEW SEMINAR FOR 2016 FIRE OFFICERS

Saturday, September 24, 2016 from 8:00 AM to 5:00 PM (EDT)

Albemarle County Fire & Rescue Price: $199

Suddenly Your A Fire Officer

...isn't the "buddy" they thought they were....must deal with "stuff" they aren't comfortable with...quickly finds out that their "firehouse" culture" is not what it used to be...is now the policy enforcer...learns that the politics they "want nothing to do with" is now front and center....sees that operating fires isn't as "fun" as it seemed to be...finds out the "complexity" of the so called "routine" fireground...has the "those" people above them and the "those" below them to deal with...finds themselves in a world of reality-and accountability that they didn't count on.

This new one day seminar is designed specifically for fire officers, new fire officers-and those that strive to become one. The attendees will learn through case studies, lecture, experiences, discussion and interactive participation, what has gone right-and what has gone wrong, in the fire service past.

The New Program Will Cover 2 Specific Areas:

The "people" stuff including behavioral issues, policy issues, "disciplined" behavior and "you can't make this stuff up" situations so that the fire officers clearly understand what they are expected to do-and what not to do.

The "tactical" stuff including company and department preparedness before the incident, as well as disciplined operational response when the incident comes in. We will use relatable buildings as part of the interactive training, allowing members to directly relate to what may be their incident.

The firehouse and the fireground are BOTH dangerous and risky areas for any fire officer to function and survive within. Good but un-prepared FIRE OFFICER careers and lives have been altered, lost, or both. This eye opening new program will significantly heighten the awareness and understanding of those attending on how to better survive-based upon the realities and experiences of those who have been there and done that!
